The ACT Junior Chess League
2011 Tuggeranong/Murrumbidgee Open
Primary Interschool Chess Championship –
Trinity score a near perfect result!

The ACT Junior Chess League (ACTJCL) continued the Term 2 Open Interschool events today with the running of the Tuggeranong/Murrumbidgee Open Primary Chess Championship.

This is the second of eight events held in Term 2 with two secondary zone events and six primary zone events.

It was a bumper event with over 130 competitors! What made the day event more exciting for ACTJCL, was the high number of brand new participants and the enthusiasm, skill & sportsmanship they displayed

Participating schools included the hosts – Wanniassa Hills Primary School – and HUGE teams from St Thomas the Apostle Primary School and St Francis of Assisi Primary School, as well as Trinity Christian School, Holy Family Primary School & St Anthony's Primary School.

On the day it was Trinity Christian School's "Trinity Kings" who made it back-to-back titles with an almost perfect 27/28! This included perfect scores from three of the four members of the team - Josiah Hay 7/7, Daniel Leung 7/7, Stuart Phair 7/7 & Ryan Porter 6/7.

The final perfect result for the day also went to Trinity Christian School with Matthew Law 7/7 of Trinity Gold being responsible for the single loss experienced by Trinity Kings.

Placegetters were:

1 st Place	Trinity Kings	Josiah Hay, Daniel Leung, Stuart Phair & Ryan Porter
2 nd Place:	Trinity Gold	Charlie Williams, Caleb Lawrence, Josiah Hall & Matthew Law
3 rd Place	St Thomas the Apostle Frost	Bethany Barclay, Courteney Kinnane, Megan Rose & Emma Dwyer

Teams to qualify for the Final on 15 August are: Trinity Kings, Trinity Gold, St Thomas the Apostle Frost, St Francis of Assisi Red Pandas, St Francis of Assisi Tree Frogs & St Anthony's U-Knighted.
